Bracelet/Anklet: The Sapphire and Jonquil colored Swarovski crystals are the signature colors for Down syndrome awareness and the three colored crystals signify the three copies of the 21st chromosome. The sterling silver tulip charm commemorates the Welcome to Holland poem. Bracelets have a sterling toggle clasp, while anklets are made with smaller pearls and beads close with a lobster clasp. Rings: The three stones can be chosen to represent Down syndrome (two sapphire, one jonquil) or can be selected as birthstone colors. Please indicate color choice, order of colors and designate the finger it will be worn on for proper sizing. Full color chart can be found on the Store page at www.dsav.org						Subtotal
